The Clapper Memo Bob McCarty

In Bob McCarty's second nonfiction book, The Clapper Memo, he reveals irrefutable evidence of an unconventional war being waged by polygraph loyalists against all challengers to their century-old credibility assessment technology. Best described as a "turf war," this conflict has been raging silently for 40 years, shows no signs of easing, and impacts Americans around the world. Among those involved in the turf war is Director of National Intelligence James R. Clapper Jr. Endorsements of the book appear below:

"Clearly an unconscionable cover-up," -- Capt. Larry W. Bailey, U.S. Navy SEAL (Ret.), former commander of the U.S. Navy SEALs Basic Underwater Demolition/SEALs Training Program (a.k.a., "B.U.D./S."). "Bob McCarty has uncovered a high-tech 'turf war' pitting those who want the best for our troops against others who seem to be focused on their own self-interests," said Maj. Gen. Paul Vallely, U.S. Army (Ret.), former deputy commander of U.S. Army Pacific. "I highly recommend THE CLAPPER MEMO." "Perhaps the most thorough investigative reporting I have encountered in years. I direct the attention of the so-called major media to it. This is how it's done!" -- David P. Schippers, Chief Investigative Counsel, Clinton Impeachment Hearings, U.S. House of Representatives. "I read your book, The Clapper Memo, and was very impressed. Your book is extremely well-researched, well-written and shocking in revealing the tactics used by President Obama's director of national intelligence, James Clapper. It is a must read for people to understand the depth of corruption that threatens our country. Thank you for writing it." -- William J. Federer, a nationally-known speaker and best-selling author whose work appears regularly on radio, television and the internet.
