The Hippies are gone, we've gone past the yuppies...life isn't what it used to be Kaydence Marshal was always a perfect student. After 4 years of high school, she is ready to get out of the small town she grew up in and go to college. But when she starts dating the high school quarterback, and town's golden boy everything changes. She is introduced to the drug culture in her town, where apparently everyone seems to have their own drug stories. The Me Culture follows Kaydence through her senior year, as she learns what subculture means today.
