The Internet Escort's Handbook Book 1: The Foundation Amanda Brooks

Written by an escort for escorts.

Sex work is a business just like any other. This is the recognized "bible" of successful independent Internet escorts. A must for the newbie as well as the seasoned pro (especially if your business needs a boost).

This one-of-a-kind resource will help you:

- Decide whether escorting fits your personality
- Maximize your unique personal appearance
- Claim and maintain personal boundaries
- Know how much personal info to reveal
- Prioritize good health and hygiene
- Continue to work, even on your period
- Understand condoms better than your average Jane
- Sample escort work then re-evaluate your approach

Safe, sane and successful escort work is possible.

Enjoy a fresh, myth-exploding examination of what escort work requires. Understand an up-close-and-personal look at the adult industry, a mysterious and often maligned business. No guilt trips, apologies or justifications -- just a frank approach to a life-changing professional decision.

Becoming an escort requires you to be a people person. (It's something that's hard to fake!) What wears you down over time? What can you do to restore your energy and perspective? The practical and personal aspects of escort work are discussed throughout the series, starting here.

Concerned you don't look like a call girl? Think again. Every woman can maximize her particular attributes and physical type intelligently and effectively. Discover your particular brand of beauty and market your look to the hilt!

For the high-end escort or the Backpage provider -- successful escorting starts with a solid foundation. Learn what it takes to be an Internet escort without wasting time and money on serious mistakes.

The Internet Escort's Handbook Book 1 is renowned for being an comprehensive and affordable resource that helps women make smart and safe decisions, covering all the basics you need to know before you begin.

Written by well-known escort and sex work advocate Amanda Brooks (The O'Reilly Factor and CNBC's The Business of High End Prostitution), the first book in this series is a refreshing look at sex work, an alternative business for women that's growing in legitimacy in today's global business market.
