IP Factly presents... "101 Facts... RABBITS!"

Amazing facts, photos and video links to one of the world's most adorable pets.

Rabbit books for kids - a fun and fascinating way for young readers to discover more about rabbits and hares. IP Factly's 101 Facts series has been designed to encourage and bolster independent reading. This rabbit book for kindle mixes facts, photos and even includes a video clip section.

Accompanying webpage with video clips

This book provides fact after fact for information hungry children to tell family and friends, and even has an accompanying webpage with video clips of some of the rabbits and hares in the book.

The video links mean children come back again and again, naturally developing their reading and learning skills (early kindle models don't support video but the safe website link is given).

Fascinating Facts Include...

About half of the world's rabbits and hare population can be found in North America.

Rabbits and hares can breathe only through their noses.

Just as they move their ears to pinpoint a sound, leporids (rabbits and hares) twitch their noses when trying to detect a smell. This twitching is called "nose blinking".

Rabbits and hares have about 17,000 taste buds. Like humans, they can tell between sweet, sour, bitter and salty foods. In the wild, they can also tell which plants are poisonous.

Rabbits and hares sleep with their eyes open.

Snowshoe hares are herbivores like other leporids but when food is scarce, they have been observed to steal the meat used as bait in traps and to even eat mice!
