Joy In the Journey ~ Encouragement for Homeschooling Moms Lori Hatcher

In Joy in the Journey, Lori Hatcher speaks candidly about the unique challenges homeschooling mothers face today. With humor and faith she shares lessons from her own homeschooling journey and challenges you to press on. With a devotion for every week of the school year, Lori tackles tough subjects such as discouragement, sibling relationships, busyness, priorities, and character training (yours and theirs). She'll teach you how to know the difference between good, better, and best, and how to seek God for everything you need to homeschool your children successfully. Interactive and engaging, each devotion is accompanied by application questions, an action step, and a prayer of commitment. Joy in the Journey is perfect for your personal quiet time or for use by a support group for discussion topics and meeting ideas.
