In life, sometimes we find ourselves looking at all of the pain, chaos and struggle in the world and begin to wonder “is help really on the way?” We see people in distress for various reasons and many of us want to do something but because we’re not born with superhero powers, we sometimes feel helpless or do nothing at all. We limit ourselves simply because we feel limited. However, we are all more than capable of doing great things. Let’s Glow In The Dark shows us that we each don't need superhero strength to make a difference. Instead, we just need each other.
