Sonia Kenie got her first skates and her first dreams of flying across the ice to a championship at quite a young age. A few years later, Coach Cameron entered her life, though quietly and unbeknown to her. When he saw that Sonia was ready, he stepped up for real, bringing with him a stern, no-nonsense brand of coaching, but also hope for treasured gold at the big Winter Games.

Was it worth it, though? The brutal hours of practice he insisted on? The draconian physical conditioning he put her through? The hard, hard hand he applied to her bottom when she did less than her best? Come join Sonia in her native land of fabulous Neverwasnia and follow her path of trial and triumph.
