Foreward: "We published our first Guide a dozen years ago. Organized as it was by academic discipline, it served a wide audience of scholars, critics, dedicated readers, and students who wished to work with or learn from the materials in our collections. As useful as the Guide was over the years, it inevitably became dated as our holdings grew with new acquisitions and a great deal of major material was added to existing collections. Equally important, the past twelve years have witnessed great changes in academic departments and disciplines. Fields of study that had been defined and stable for years have been reshaped and even transformed. This Guide reflects some of these shifts of emphasis with its inclusion of new areas of study. The new Guide offers a detailed source of information, with the addition of essays by Associate Director Sally Leach and Executive Curator for Academic Programs Kurt Heinzelman..."
