She was a lady, and he was not a gentleman. That's all there was to it, in the eyes of Grace. She had followed her family to America, in the hopes of success and striking it rich. And yet, things weren't quite as easy as they seemed. Gone were the frills they were accustomed to, traded in for leather boots. Horses, too, were a part of the equation, but as adorable as they were, they were turning into quite the problem.

Cookie wouldn't cooperate, and at the risk of potentially losing her sister's horse, Grace set out to look for a horse trainer, without much hope. But then she met Smoky, and he had stepped in and offered his help. And, in the words of her sister Jo, her mother, and father, he'd turned out better than they'd all expected. And though she had been dubious at the start, Grace couldn't help but find herself slowly roped in to the carefree, happy-go-lucky cowboy more and more.
