The only thing on Detective Gary Bartram's mind was his retirement as he arrived at the North Tower for a last minute interview because today was his last day on the force and then the lights flickered. It was Tuesday, September 11,2001. For the next twelve hours, Detective Bartram would be involved in the day's events as he attempts to get to the command Center on the 22nd floor of the North Tower to make sure the roof doors had been unlocked because his wife Ellen was in a meeting on the top floors and the doors were her only chance to survive. Against city ordinances they were now being locked. Follow the detective as he then assists in the rescue of fire department personel because one of them may be his best friend and neighbor, Tony Edmunds of Rescue1. In his search for answers to what really happened, Gary would learn about the 1993 North Tower bombing; the Iran Contra and Savings and Loan scandals; the Oklahoma City bombing and the massacre at Waco and what they had in common with 9/11--the Enterprise.
