When it comes to sharing your faith in Christ with others, do you ever feel intimidated into silence? Do you feel like you don't know where to start? Witnessing Without Fear is designed to help equip Christians to get involved in sharing Christ in a biblical and practical way. "This book by Massimo Lorenzini provides Christians with an easy to understand introduction to personal evangelism. Most Christians want to witness for Christ, but they are nervous about doing it. This book deals realistically with those fears and allays them. It also presents a simple, practical approach to witnessing. Pastors will find this book a great help in training their members to share their faith." --John Mark Terry, Ph.D., Professor of Missions at Malaysian Baptist Theological Seminary and The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary
