The Flesh of Man Made the Word of God Robert B. Thompson

The Lord Jesus Christ is the Word of God made flesh. Now we, who are being made His brothers and conformed to His image, are the flesh being made the Word of God. Such is the new covenant.

"I, the LORD, have called you in righteousness; I will take hold of your hand. I will keep you and will make you to be a covenant for the people and a light for the Gentiles, to open eyes that are blind, to free captives from prison and to release from the dungeon those who sit in darkness." (Isaiah 42:6,7)

The passage above refers to the Servant of the Lord. The Servant of the Lord is Christ—Head and Body.

This reminds us of something Paul wrote:

You show that you are a letter from Christ, the result of our ministry, written not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on tablets of stone but on tablets of human hearts. (II Corinthians 3:3)

A covenant is an agreement between two people. In the case of Israel, the Ten Commandments were the covenant between God and the Israelites. Their part was to obey the Commandments. God's part was to bless them with material prosperity and long life.

The Lord Jesus Christ is God's new covenant with man. If we will receive Christ as God's Son and our Savior, God has promised us eternal life. The eternal life includes the knowledge and blessing of the Father, and bodily immortality.
