The foundation of this book is the prophecy, "When black men stretch their hands to God in submission and adoration, God will bring an unparalleled revival to all His people." It is the author's belief that God will use black men to bring reconciliation to all of His people. However, reconciliation must begin with knowing who we are and whose we are. The purpose of this book is to affirm the biblical black heritage that has been ignored, misconstrued, misinterpreted and in some cases, entirely removed. The goal is to restore, revive and liberate God's people while eradicating ignorance.
