Maud (1890-1971) and Miska (1888-1960) Petersham were a husband-and-wife illustration team who wrote and illustrated more than sixty books for children, and illustrated over a hundred works written by other authors. The couple received the Caldecott Medal for The Rooster Crows---a book of American songs, rhymes and games in the tradition of Mother Goose---in 1946. A single illustrator is chosen each year to receive this prestigious award, and they were also given the 1942 Caldecott (Honor) Award for An American ABC. This is a charming retelling of the story of Christ made especially for children, enhanced by the beautiful illustrations.
