A Wolves of Wall Street / The Dollhouse Society Crossover!

Natural-born witch Cody Goodrich is homeless, job-less and desperate for money. Then he lands a dream job as a "manny" to Lucien Romanov's four rambunctious children. The problem? The children are just a little bit strange--and out of control. They roughhouse, have enormous appetites, and sometimes even bay at the full moon. Mr. Romanov, the otherwise debonair billionaire stockbroker, isn't much better. He's rough, aloof...and deliciously seductive. It's not fair to stick that much sexy in one package. Still, Cody has his own troubled past. He is determined to resist falling for his husky, wolfish boss and the draw of a loving family that's eluded him up until now, but some spells--like love and lust--are too powerful for even a witch to resist.

Excerpt:

I nodded and got up while breathing a huge sigh of relief. I guess Mr. Romanov hadn't noticed me last night. That or he'd decided not to eat me. But as I was heading for the door, Mr. Romanov stopped me with his next words. "You liked that moment when I took him, bent him over the sofa, didn't you?"

I stopped but didn't turn around. I couldn't bear to see the look in his eyes. I didn't know if it was human...or not. His dark brown human eyes or the red eyes of the wolf?

He continued. "You wished that was you. It turned you on. It made you come, didn't it?"

I swallowed hard against what felt like a lump of jagged rock in my throat. I thought my heart might beat right out of my chest. Cold sweat drenched me up and down.

"You're right about everything, little witch."

Oh god. Oh god.

"Everything except one thing...I don't eat humans. I do enjoy fucking them, however."
