Four friends since childhood go on a once in a lifetime trip to Alaska. There is Johnny, the glue that keeps them all together. Jack is reckless, Kyle is serious, and Mike is the tough guy. As with any group of long time friends there is some friction among them. There has been trouble between Jack and Kyle in the past but they are willing to put it all behind them to enjoy their trip. Just as they seem to have gotten over their differences they stumble upon a girl in the woods. She is in bad shape and has escaped her captors, and she was not being held alone. The guys have to make a decision, risk their lives and go help the other girls that are being held or get out of there as quick as possible and send in the authorities.
